CHILLIAN CONTRACTOR OF THE CON ORDER ARMY HARNESS FROM LOCAL CONCERN

Thousand Sets for Artillery and 500 Cavalry Saddles Will Go to Burope.

The Cottrell Saddlery Company received yesterday morning an order for 1.960 sets of artillery harness and 200 cavalry saddles for forcign shipment. The order, one of a large number of like orders delivered throughout the country, was made through a forcign purchasing agent, and it is thought that the harness and saddles are for either the British or French service. Such a large order means that an emergency exisits for the government issuing the order, and there is but one great emergency now in the forcign field. J. T. Palmatary, of the Cottrell Saddlery Company, said yesterday that he did not know who was the chief purchasing agent, as the order with him had been placed through a three like orders, and it is said that the orders for harness and saddles and him of purchasing agent, as the order with him had been placed through a three like orders, and it is said that the orders for harness and saddlery will total in value of $1,500,000.000. One of the orders was for 25,000 sets of artillery harness and as many saddles. The contract for the harness will average $35 a set.

Mr. Palmatary sald that the order placed with his firm will be manufactured at once, and will be ready for delivery in six weeks. The complete
